THE JUDGE OF HANOVER COUNTY SPEAKS.

Tim. Howard suffered for three years with lung and throat troubles, and last spring was thought by his neighbors to be dying. I heard of his condition and gave him A. B. C. Tonic. Its effect was magical. In a very short time he was able to leave his bed, and now regards himself a well man. Others in this vicinity have taken the "Tonic" with pronounced benefit.

the Pennsylvania Contest.

the Democrats of this state have begun an early contest for the nomination of governor. This year about the same number of elements as usual enter into city, and ex-Lieutenant Governor Black, of York; so that, in the jargon of poli-tics, these men are known as "back numbers."

Mr. Wa'lace and His Aspirations For many years Mr. Wallace was a potent factor in Pennsylvania politics. He is better known perhaps for his long contest with Mr. Randall than for any other one thing. This even dwarfs his six years of service in the senate and other one thang. This even in the senate and his still longer tenure of office as a senator of the state legislature at Harrisburg. He has long been anxious to make the race for governor and four years ago, after dallying for some time with the proposition, finally came out openly as a candidate and was defeated by Mr. Black.

Lapse of years, however, has not cooled his ardor. While he has lost his power over the machine in this state, he has kept his ambitions undimmed. Strange to say, he has co-operation of his old enemies, Mr. Randall's friends. The veteran congressman has not been able to give much attention to the matter himself, but it is quite certain that his friends have not taken the position without some indication of his desires in the matter.

In the matter accentant to the matter building, one fatally. Two firemen building, one fatally. Two firemen were slightly injuried by falling walls. The fire originated in the boiler room. in the matter.

Ex-Governor Pattison. Mr. Pattison, after his four years' service as governor, returned to this city and buried himself in the presidency of a local trust company, he and his friends avowing that he was done with politics. Nevertheless he would not be averse to throwing himself into the use of your Burdock Blood Bitters I feel better than I have for years. Have recommended it to many friends with the most excellent results. mand the vote of more than about onefifth of the delegates chosen last month. He has some considerable support in the Channey Black and Senator Coxe.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Black is not at all anxious to be a candidate again, but he is anxious, as are his friends, that his and their old enemy, Mr. Wallace, shall not be preferred by the convention. He has, perhaps, more personal friends in the state than all the other candidates combined; but there are a good many among them who of Self-Abuse: as loss of memory, Universal Lassitude, pain in the back, dimin their hands he may retire at any time.

Among the leaders of the party in the state is ex-State Senator Eckley B. Coxe, who finds some leisure from his manwhich we desire to send free by mail to every one. The Specific Medicine is sold by all druggists at $1 per package, or six packages for $5, or will be sent free by mail on the receipt of the money, by addressing THE GRAY MEDICINE CO., Buffalo, N. who finds some leisure from his management of a $30,000,000 property to give a little attention to politics. He does not want anything, and procably could not be induced under any circumstances to take anything. He is in politics simply because he believes in Grover Cleveland, and for aimost no other reason. He is anxious that no harm should be permitted to come to the leader of the Democracy or to the cause that he represents, and is ready cause that he represents, and is ready and willing to give both time and money to promote tariff reform in any way What Mr. Scott Wants.

Perhaps the most potent man in Pennsylvania politics at the present time is ex-Congressman William L. Scott, of Erie. He is an old and determined enemy of Mr. Wallace, but he is not so anxious to feed any of his old grudges as he is to maintain the organization in-tact against the time for selecting delegates to the national convention in 1892. He is not, therefore, particularly opposed to Mr. Wallace, but he is not, as has been reported, convinced that Mr. Patrison ought to be nominated; neither is he attached to the fortunes of Mr.

So far as the present outlook is concerned it is probable that Mr. Wallace will be nominated, not because anybody is particularly anxious that this should be the case, but because no more generally acceptable candidate can be agreed upon.

Dynamite Didn't Kill Them. St. George, W. Va., April 1.-J. W. Ramsey and State Senator A. C. Minear had narrow escapes from death. They were descending Cheat river in a boat and had a package of dynamite along, intending to use it to kill tish with. Selecting a good point in the river the sen-ator lighted a stick of the explosive, but ator lighted a stick of the explosive, but dropped it in the bottom of the boat. The result was an explosion which wrecked the boat. Minear was blown up in the air about twenty feet, alighting in the branches of a tree, while Ramsey was thrown into the river. Neither, by a miracle, was wounded.
